Two members of the Sherwill 4-H Club, Campbell County won top honors at Virginia State 4-H Club Congress at Blacksburg this past June. They are Terry Coffey, who won in Photography, and Jane Garrette, who was selected as a winner in Home Management. The 4-H'ers submitted an accumulated Achievement Record in these project areas last February for competition on County, District, and State levels.

Jane Garrette, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle N. Garrette of Concord, has been in 4-H for 8 years, and began taking projects in he Home Management field in the fourth grade. In 1968, she won first place honors in the State 4-H Home Contest with her presentation entitled 'Plan For Happier Shdying.' In 1969 and 1970, she won blue ribbons in the State Clothing Demonstration Contest with a demonstration of pressing skills. Jane has worked with younger 4-Hers on their demonstrations and assisted them in county workshops or those she's held in her home. She is a member of 4-H Honor Club and the Virginia Chapter 4-H All-Stars. This fall, she is enrolled at VPI and SU as a Freshman in the College of Home Economics.

Ineffably Sublime'

There is a well known hymn in Christian hymnology that included the phrase in the beadline above, "ineffably sublime". One local singer remarked lately, "that's a nice choice of words" or something to that effect. And now comes the question, "Is there anything around Appomattox that is . . . "ineffably sublime"? A sunset at the Old Courthouse night just fill the bill . . . birds singing in the early morning in our as-yet fairly fresh rural air . . . or perhaps to old-time railroad buffs that wonderful, sentimental "whooo -whooo" train whistle on Sunday morning, Aug. 29, of a powerful coal-burning engine bearing an excursion train to points east.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST

Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson No. 10 for Sept. 4, 1971
Subject: Money and Missions
Scripture Key Text –"Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel." 1 Cor. 9:14

"All that we do is to be done willingly. We are to bring our offerings with joy and gratitude, saying as we present them, Of Thine own we freely give Thee. The most costly service we can render is but meager compared to the gift of our world. Christ is a gift every day. God gave Him to the world, and He graciously takes the gifts entrusted to His human agents for the advancement of His work in the world. Thus we show that we recognize and acknowledge that everything belongs to God, absolutely and entirely." –Comments on Stewartship, p. 198.

In this lesson we shall confine our study to the stewardship of the monetary means of the gospel, which God has so plentifully placed in the hands of His children.

Lesson Outline – I. Stewardship in the Old Testament. Ps. 24:1. 2. Stewardship as Lived and Taught by Christ. 2 Cor. 8, 9. 3. Stewardship as Practiced in the Early Church. 1 Cor. 9: 14. 4. Love for the Lost and Needy Inspired Sacrifice, 2 Cor. 5:14. 5. Missions Involves Stewardship. Rom. 10:14,15. 6.Rewards of Stewardship. 2 Cor. 9: 7 – "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. Ps. 24:1. "Having sinned, man was sentenced to earn his livelihood by the sweat of his face. (Gen. 3:17-19) and there was danger that he would come to say in his heart, "My power and the might of mine handsth gotten me this wealth (Deut. 8: 17) whereas in reality it was God that had given him the power to get it. (Deut. 8:18) . . . by paying tithe man acknowledges that he is a steward of God, the owner of all things . . . As a test God forbade man to eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil (Gen. 2:17) claiming it as His own." –S.D.A. Bible Dictionary p. 1102.

Christ states clearly in Matt. 23:23 that while there were weightier matters than tithing, but tithing ought not to be neglected. How did Christ tell one young man in His day to become involved in practice Christianity? Read Matt. 19:16-22) "As a gospel minister, it was Paul's privilege to claim support from those for whom he labored. But though he become servant of all, yet he worked with his hands to support himself while at Corinth, that none might find occasion to charge him with selfishness. He did not receive wages for his labor, though as a minister of the gospel this was his right. Thus he made it evident that he was working for souls, not for money." –S.D.A Bible Commentary, Vol. 6, p. 1088. "If our hearts are softened and subdued by the grace of Christ . . . there will be a natural outflow of love, sympathy, and tenderness to others." – S.D.A. Commentary Vo. 6, p. 1103. First of all we must have the motivating power that Christ had. "For the love of Christ constraineth us." 2 Cor. 5:14

Reception Honors Pastor

The Reverend M. G. Stimpson, Mrs. Stimpson and their son and daughter were honored at a reception Sunday evening, Aug. 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Pack. Church elder Jerry A. Burke made a short speech to the group gathered in the breezeway at the Packs' home, expressing the church's appreciation for Mr. Stimpson's work as pastor and civic worker. He then presented the family with a color television set, a gift from the Appomattox and Stonewall churches. The Stimpsons were given a silver serving platter and silver bell by members of Walker's Presbyterian Church.

The Women of the Church, hostesses for the Sunday reception, served a variety of pastry sandwiches, cookies and assorted fruit from two watermelon baskets set at each end of the serving table. Various members of the Women of the Church served at the two punch bowls. Summer flowers, both in arrangements and in flower beds surrounding the Pack home provided colorful accents.

The Stimpsons have been honored at a number of other social affairs including private dinners at the homes of church members.
